

BEAUTIFUL UNDERMUSLIN

AT LESS THAN WHOLESALE PRICES.

How we wish it were possible for us to offer dainty and durable Lingerie each day in each week for these prices. Within a month we'd be selling Underwear to every woman in the state. But we cannot do it. Such opportunities come rarely—once in a year, may be in two. Monday morning we placed on sale an assortment the equal we have never shown before. The specials are Skirts and Three-piece Suits, coming to us fresh, properly cut and fashioned and trimmed in ways to satisfy the most particular, and we are selling them at less than we can buy them for. Note Prices! See the Goods!

CHELSEA.

There were no services at the Methodist church last Sabbath, the pastor being away on his vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sprague of East Brookfield were guests of W. H. Sprague and wife Sunday.

Col. H. O. Bixby drove to East Brookfield last Friday to visit his uncle, Urbane L. Bixby, who has been critically ill for several weeks.

Donald and Sally Emery returned the last of the week from a two weeks' absence visiting relatives and friends in Quebec and Royalton.

The remains of Willis Sanborn, who was killed by lightning in Williams-town, were brought here for interment last Saturday afternoon.

Col. and Mrs. C. S. Emery returned last Saturday evening from a two weeks' outing spent in Maine. They returned by the way of Fairlee, where they spent several days at their cottage on the shore of Lake Morey.

The remains of Fred Lougee who was killed at one of the quarries in East Barre last Saturday, were brought here for interment Monday afternoon. The interment was made in Highland cemetery. Mr. Lougee was a brother-in-law of Philip J. Little of this place.

Mrs. Lucinda Underwood of Hudson, Mass., is spending the summer in town and has taken board with the Misses Andrus. Mrs. Underwood was a Chelsea girl and will doubtless be remembered by many as Miss Lucinda Allen. Her girlhood home was on the West Hill and this is her first visit to Chelsea for forty years. She is much surprised to note so few changes in the village during her long absence and is equally surprised and greatly pleased to meet so many of her former schoolmates and acquaintances.

NORTHFIELD.

Yesterday was the first time in the history of this village that the people have had an opportunity to have electric power in the day time. The lines have all been completed and only the business portion of the town will be benefited, at least for the present. The power comes from the Mad River Power company of Moretown.

At a recent meeting of the board of school directors the following list of teachers were elected: Principal, Duane L. Robinson; first assistant, Maude E. Gilligan; assistant, Miss L. Prudence Stickney; grade 10, Miss Daisy L. Kenyon; grades 8 and 9, Mrs. H. E. Wood; grade 7, Miss Mary E. Doherty; grades 5 and 6, Nina M. LaMordier; grade 4, Miss Minnie E. Talbot; grade 3, Nellie Tilden; grade 2, Miss Jessie Silver; grade 1, Inez Woodbury; drawing, Amelia C. Boyanto.

M. D. Smith left Sunday for West Virginia to invoice and pack ready for shipping the library of the late Maj. Henry Alvoid, who by his will bequeathed his library to Norwich University. Mr. Smith expects to be gone about three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Yeaton of Brooklyn and Miss Sweeney of Boston are stopping at the home of Prof. Charles Dole.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lamb of Owasso, Mich., are visiting at the home of Mr. Lamb's parents for a few weeks.

GRANITEVILLE.

Levi McLeod has returned to Boston, Mass., after a short vacation spent with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan McLeod.

The members of Summit Lodge, No. 307, N. E. O. P., who have not paid their lodge dues and assessments for July, are requested to do so before August 1st, or be suspended, the same to be paid at the financial secretary's residence.

Miss Johanna McLeay spent Sunday in town visiting relatives.

The local Woodmen base ball team will play the Woodmen team from Barre on Gageley's Park, next Friday evening, game to be called at 4 o'clock. A fast and exciting game expected. Admission 25 cents. Ladies free.

Several of our residents spent Sunday at Berlin Pond and report an enjoyable time.
